Dear Mrs Reakes-Williams

I have been contacted by the Department for Education, who inform me that your school has performed well in the reformed Key Stage 2 tests, and has seen an increase in the proportion of pupils achieving the expected standard in reading, writing and mathematics.

This is wonderful news, and I wanted to pass on my best wishes and thanks to you and your colleagues, who have worked so hard to achieve this success. If I can be of any help in the future, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Yours sincerely
